Park enjoyed at picnic

From free Centennial flags at the gate for all children to a fireworks display featuring a 100 gun salute, the Lion's Centennial Dominion Day Picnic was very much enjoyed by all who took part. The Park was officially opened for the season by Deputy-Mayor Armand Donals. Mr. Donals said he has watched the Lion's Park change over the past few years from nothing to the pleasant, well equipped family park it is now. The St. Albert Lion's have spent well over $5,000.00 this past year, adding to and beautifying the park. St. Albert's charming Miss Centennial, Lucie Hermans was presented with a lovely corsage by the Lions Club.

Volleyball, softball, races and games filled the afternoon. And as far as the three legged race is concerned, the Principal of a certain St. Albert school is no great shakes as a runner!

Around supertime numerous St. Albert families arrived, toting picnic baskets, hampers, jugs and coolers.

Pool News

The pool schedule has been altered slightly for July and August. Instructional classes are now being held in the morning - apart from adult classes which continue to be held at 9 p.m. Apart from this, the main changes are the introduction of Family Swimming from 6 till 7:30 p.m. each evening and the fact that the Adult Swimming period will now include anyone from the age of 16 years.

We regret that the Pool will probably be closed next Monday in order that minor repairs on the deck may be carried out. For technical reasons this will only happen if the weather is hot and we are sincerely sorry that any further prior warning will not be possible. It is extremely important that these repairs be carried out now to avoid major trouble later on.

To encourage season ticket holders - especially our younger patrons - to take care of their tickets and to discourage carelessness, we are now adopting a policy whereby the first replacement will be accompanied by a stern warning; the second replacement of a ticket will cost 25¢ and the third replacement 50¢. After that careless season ticket holders will find themselves paying a dollar for their carelessness.

For information regarding classes and schedules, phone the Administrative Office of the Parks and Re-

Town Council met June 28th at a special meeting to discuss the second draft of the 1967 budget, which was presented by Mr. Billings. He stated that an estimated assessment figure of $15,500.00 had been used to prepare the draft, as the true assessment figure was not available. A mill rate of 70 mills on this basis balanced the budget draft. (The 1966 mill rate was 62).

Councillor Gibbon questioned the matter of school requisitions, suggesting that these be appealed. He noted that the Provincial government when according for the two mill increase in the Foundation Program, had indicated that these two mills were added to reduce or hold the line on supplementary requisitions from school boards.

Since this did not prove true in the case of St. Albert, Mr. Gibbon moved to appeal the requisitions to the Local Authorities Board and motion carried. Mayor and Council made it clear that they had confidence in the local school boards, and it was the Foundation Program they felt to be inadequate in this matter. Councillor Bakker commented that the 25% increase in teachers salaries is largely to blame for the hike in schools' requisitions. Councillor Wheatley voted against the appeal motion - "It is not our duty to concern ourselves with education matters as such" he said. "If this is how much money the schools need to provide proper education, we can't question the school's decision."

Council went over the draft in detail with Mr. Billings, and the changes which had been made following the study of the first draft. $6,000. was included in the second draft for Recreation Department since it had been found impossible to make this further reduction in department funds.

The Arena was discussed and a motion carried that $40,000. be allowed in Engineering Structures for contributions to the General Capital Fund to allow for construction of the Arena. Councillors Bakker and Parkes voted against the motion. A petition had been received by Council requesting a plebiscite in Oct. on the arena before the Council proceeded to borrow an additional $50,000. for this building, over the $75,000. approved borrowing last year. Councillor de Bruijn said it is certainly economical to build the arena in the way Council is now proposing, explaining that the average tax payer would pay $21. for one year to make up the $40,000.

as provided in the motion, Councillor Donals went along with the motion "with strong reservations about the type of building provided". He felt not enough research has gone into the possibility of leasing an ice plant for the arena. "It will be a lot more costly to put in a plant at some later date", he said.

The Joint Use Committee will be asked to consider the matter of cleaning the outdoor rinks after use. $600. was voted for repairing the club room building. Council was advised that the anticipated operating loss on the swimming pool would be about $13,000. Instead of the $9,000. provided for, $4,000. was added to the pool deficit.

Following a discussion on maintenance of the curling rink, Council moved to have a full report from the staff and rink requirements. An amount of $2,000. was included in the budget for Arena maintenance.

The meeting also discussed the Glenview and Sturgeon Heights Stage 5 subdivision. No funds had been provided in the second draft by Capital Expenditures out of Revenue for these. It was noted that funds for the Sturgeon Heights subdivision would have to be provided for in the 1968 budget, on an inter-fund basis.

Local scout off to Newfoundland

Donald Dianocky, 14-year old scout of First St. Albert Mission Troop is one of 15 Alberta scouts who will take part in a Scout's Exchange under the Youth Travel Program sponsored by the Canadian Centennial Commission. Donald will be leaving shortly for Cornerbrook, Newfoundland where he will be the guest of scout Wayne Russell, also 14-years.

A group of 17 B.C. Scouts are also participating in the exchange program, travelling to centres in Ontario, Quebec New Brunswick, P.E.I., Nova Scotia, Saskatchewan, Manitoba and Newfoundland.

The scouts will visit about a week with their "partners" in the East and then bring their partner back home with them for a similar visit. They will be treated as members of the family to which they have been sent.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Rossiter of 20 Sturgeon Road, Donald is a First Class Scout with a good many badges to his credit. He applied first to his home district, Landing Trail from which the application was forwarded to MacKenzie district and then to Provincial Command, and was thrilled when his was one of the 15 accepted for the Exchange from Alberta.

Donald also considers himself lucky to be one of two boys going to the farthest away point-Newfoundland (the other is a B.C. Scout). He will have a ten hour stop-over in Montreal and a trip by ferry to the island.

The scouts will all keep a diary of their visit, in books

Mayor's column

It would appear that the surest guarantee for a transfer or promotion for anybody living in St. Albert would be for them to join the Centennial Advisory Committee. I am about to lose one more member in the person of Len Harris who has served so admirably over the past year or more as Entertainment Chairman. Mr. and Mrs. Harris are returning to their native England, where it appears that opportunity is knocking for Len. With them go my very best wishes and a hearty "thank you" for a job well done for St. Albert on the Centennial Committee.

Canada's official Birthday July 1st, has come and gone with one of the most spectacular birthday parties in history on that particular day. While it was with regret that I could not be with the St. Albert Lions Club to open their official Centennial Project on Saturday, I was pleased to be able to represent the Town of St. Albert at the official Government ceremonies at the Legislative Buildings. After the ceremonies at the Legislative Buildings, I was the guest of Mayor Vincent Dantzer at the Civic celebrations at City Hall. What I believe to be one of the most unique Centennial Projects in the area is that of the Dutch Community of Greater Edmonton in their gift of a Barrel Street Organ to the City of Edmonton. It is the first time I have had the pleasure of seeing or hearing one of these instruments and to merely say I was thrilled by it is an extremely inadequate description of how I felt when I heard the instrument play

"Canada". I also understand that this is the last Street Organ that will be allowed to leave Holland in that they are no longer manufactured and only fifty remain in that Country. Greater Edmonton can be extremely proud of their Dutch community.

More Centennial Projects will be taking place in St. Albert during the remainder of the year and I hope most of our citizens will partake in these celebrations in one way or another.

The year 1967 will mark another first for St. Albert in that it will be the first year that we, as a community have taken part in the Edmonton exhibition. The Civic Float, which has been a Centennial Project of the Town staff, will be entered in the Edmonton Parade. As you have likely read by now, the float took first place

the Gazette REFLECTS

School Boards and trustees throughout the Province are faced with an increasingly difficult task each year in satisfying both Teacher Salary Negotiating Committees and groaning ratepayers who feel their taxes are becoming increasingly high. The conscientious trustee has also in mind the needs of the students as a top priority. Such trustees have just been through long and rigorous sessions of salary negotiating for the 1967-68 term.

As all parents of school children are well aware a really good teacher is one of the most valuable assets their children can have. Such a one is more than worth a high salary. But parents are also aware that they are paying for some teachers who are completely ineffective, and some, because of their complete lack of understanding of how to treat children, should never be allowed in any classroom, regardless of whether they have qualified under the 'system'. Yet if such a teacher gets by one year it is well nigh impossible to get rid of them - which results in generations of children in effect losing a year in whatever courses these bad teachers conduct.

But the Alberta Teacher's Association, in effect a powerful union, protects these incompetents in a system where all are paid on the same scale. The ATA, like a plumbers union, tells its employers who is capable of being employed and at what wage scale. If the owner of a large plumbing firm must carry several dud employees on his payroll, he will suffer loss of profit. But when it happens in education the losses are much more serious! Teachers have a powerful influence on children. But they are our children - and we should have more say.

Parents know that educating their children is of necessity going to cost a lot of money, and by and large they are prepared to pay. But they should have a say in paying outstanding teachers higher salaries, in order to keep them, and in firing some who should be fired, in order to protect their children.

While on the subject another thing needs saying. Those educators who have proven their ability in the classroom, and their interest in teaching as a PROFESSION, should have more influence on the Provincial Department of Education. Their voice should be heard with respect to what curriculum is taught - and what texts, aids and methods will be used to teach it.

Dance awards made in hospital

A crowd of over 500 attended the third annual recital of the St. Albert School of Dancing, held June 23rd at Victoria Composite auditorium, and were delighted with the children's performances.

For the first time the School awarded scholarships this year. Four students received $25, each to be used to further their talents. They were selected on the basis of a sincere interest in dancing and the desire to continue their dancing education. The scholarships will be awarded annually and will go next year to different students, as the awards may not be won two years in a row.

Colleen Kelly, Elizabeth

Dear Sir:

I would like to correct an impression that may have been left with readers of last week's issue, with regard to the bus for the handicapped being required for the students of the Winnifred Stewart School.

When the former bus service was discontinued at the end of April, the Winnifred Stewart School sent a bus out to St. Albert to transport our children. This service is to continue and needless to say, as parents we are most grateful.

Thank you,

Sincerely,
Mrs. L. Isert

WATERLOO BUCKS CLOSING BY-LAW: The City of Kitchener, Ontario following a discussion on a by-law to regulate store hours reached a decision to proceed with such a by-law if three neighboring cities pass similar legislation. But a week after Kitchener made its decision, retailers in adjoining Waterloo decided to delay their request to council for a store-hours closing by-law. Waterloo's Mayor A. C. Paleczny seems to be sparking the opposition. He says: "I feel government interference in the free enterprise system is unwarranted, unnecessary and undesirable. If retailers want to close their stores, that's their business, not council's". He also noted that Kitchener's proposed by-law covers four neighboring cities

A similar by-law in Hamilton has been upheld by the Ontario Court of Appeal, and efforts are being made to have it adopted in many municipalities. ## Bus blitz short of goal

The one-night blitz of St. Albert homes and businesses last Thursday, by the Knights of Columbus to raise funds to purchase a bus for the handicapped children of our town, fell well short of the $6,000. objective. With receipts on hand, and what the Knights expect to pick up on call backs, the total should reach $2,500. The Knights were most pleased with the results of the canvass and are most grateful to all the canvassers who took part in the project. Although they did not reach their expected objective, the K.C.'s feel that with two or three other projects over the next few months, the necessary funds will become available.

Householders who were away during the blitz and would like to contribute to this most worthy cause, may do so by mailing a cheque, made out in favour of the K.C. Handicapped Bus Fund, 23 Geneva Crescent, St. Albert, or calling 599-8386, and someone will be sent around to pick up your donation.

Agriculture Board meeting

At the meeting of the Sturgeon Agricultural Service Board on June 6th, Mr. Flynn Chairman of the Board extended a cordial welcome to Mr. Shenfield as the acting agricultural fieldman and assured him of the Board's full co-operation.

FIELDMAN POSITION

Mr. Norman Soder was interviewed by the Board in regard to the position of Agricultural Fieldman. He informed the Board that he had held similar positions during four years for the County of Vulcan. After that he was employed by the Farm Credit Corporation for 3 1/2 years and was presently working for the All Risk Alberta Crop Insurance, under Mr. M. Mickay and Mr. Patching. He stated that references could be obtained from any of the above mentioned. He assured the Board that it had been very pleasant to work for the Alberta Crop Insurance but he was unhappy with the amount of travelling that he had to make which took him away from home most of the time. He is 43 years old, living presently at Camrose with his children but intends to move here if he obtains the Fieldman's position. He would be available by July 1, 1967. References - George O'Brien and Ralph Craven of the Farm Credit Corporation, Mr. M. Michay and Mr. Patching of the Alberta Crop Insurance, the Secretary Treasurer or District Agriculturist of the County of Vulcan.

Where is the body?

For the past four days, rumors have been persisting that a body had been found in a car some 20 yards west of the road, seven miles north of Morinville. Chasing robbers is a sport that any newshound enjoys, but chasing a dead body that everyone has heard about, but nobody can produce or identify is another story.

After phone calls to Morinville and R.C.M.P. in the district including Westlock, who had no information on the rumour, we made personal inquiries among highway crews and people near to where the car was abandoned.

These are the only facts verified at press time. A car has been abandoned for some three weeks, west of the road, some seven miles north of Morinville. Owner of the car is not known. But nobody, and no body has been found in the car. Neither an old man of 75 as first reported or a young man 18 years old, part of the construction crew as also rumored. So folks, if this rumor persists ask the bearer WHERE IS THE BODY?

Margarine may win sales tax equality

The parliamentary consumers committee has recommended an end to the discriminatory tax treatment of margarine, according to Food In Canada, business publication for the industry. "The federal sales tax on margarine was complained on frequently by consumer groups" the committee reported after its journey across Canada to get consumers' viewpoints. It agreed with the conclusion of the recent royal commission on taxation that "from a neutrality standpoint, it is imperative that both butter and margarine receive the same sales tax treatment."

Flavor-free milk urged for dairymen

Is the milk that your dairy cows are producing good enough for your children to drink and would you enjoy the cream on a dish of strawberries?

About this time every year, a stream of weed-flavoured milk and cream comes pouring into Alberta's dairy processing plants, says J. R. Findlay, Dairy Specialist with the Alberta Animal Industry Division. It has become a "tradition", and one we could well do without.

Mr. Findlay suggests that dairymen in this province start producing and marketing flavour-free milk and cream as one of their centennial projects to celebrate Canada's hundredth birthday. Once having established such a project they should keep it up every year.

In addition to receiving higher returns from their milk and cream, dairymen who ship a top quality product will derive a great deal of pride and satisfaction from such an achievement.

It is important to remember says Mr. Findlay, that the first green growth that appears on many spring pastures is often weeds. Stinkweed is the weed that is most frequently responsible for tainted milk.

Mr. Findlay points out that dairymen who have to turn their cows out on pastures containing stinkweed can cover come the problem by removing ing them from the pasture three or four hours before they are milked and feeding them good quality roughage. During this period any undesirable flavour will be eliminated from the milk.

The Alberta milk grade standards require that weed-flavoured milk be rejected, coloured, and returned to the producer. The best use that can be made of it is to feed it to farm animals. Weed-flavoured cream will be graded No. 2. This grade automatically reduces the cash value of the cream by 16¢ to 40¢ per pound of butterfat.

Original art makes fabulous collection

The Legal Craft Club wanted something different for their Craft Display at our annual "Fete au Village" July 29 and 30th. This year being Centennial Year they looked for something special and found it in the marvellously original and artistic work of Mrs. Eddy Bernard (Rose Dube) formerly of Legal but now residing at 9346-153 St., Edmonton.

Mrs. Bernard has made a rare assortment of Heads of North American Indian Chiefs. She is truly an artist, all heads are hand made and no molds were used. Some faces are made of chammois and others of "papier mache" painted with oil paints. Rose took her references from library books and each of her models is different and authentic. The faces are complete with head-dress, beads, feathers etc., as worn by the different tribes such as the Chipawa, Mohawks, Pontiacs, Iroquois to mention a few, and our artist can identify them all. She has close to 200 of these priceless Indian heads and has worked on this project for the past four years

She has also made earrings, wall plaques with "papier mache" birds trimmed with dyed feathers of various colors, animals and the Indian "Papoose".

She will be lending the Craft Display an assortment and we hope that Mrs. Bernard will be able to get away from her busy schedule (a family of twelve ages ranging from 4 to 25 yrs) to give a demonstration on how she designs and molds the faces from papier mache.

Her daughter, Doreen, who is a 4th year student at the Arts School in Calgary, returned from Expo recently and had these remarks to make: She said she was very disappointed with the Fort Edmonton display because the souvenirs were all produced in Japan. The impressions from most foreign people are that "Canada" means Indians Tons of fish caught in Alberta lakes by commercial fishermen are shipped to markets as far away as Chicago and New York.
